The GAS BAG | KAMP KANAWANA'S Official Paper | EXTRA

Published once ever so often. VOL. 13—No. 1—1923

REMINDERS.

Final Instructions.—Put your Camp K number on all your goods. Be sure you get your Privilege Card and Badge before going to the station.

Special Correction Regarding Trains

Parties leave Place Viger, C.P.R. Weekly, on Saturdays only, at 9 A.M., TRAIN TIME. Get off at Piedmont. We meet you. A good meal served on arrival.

WHAT TO BRING.

For a long stay. Two double blankets, pillow, toothbrush, toilet articles, Bible, pyjamas, gym suit, gym shoes, 2 pairs heavy boots, extra laces, pull-over sweater, raincoat, rubber sheet, 2 pairs long khaki pants, baseball gloves, etc., knife, hatchet, camera, musical instruments, calico bag (20 x 30 in.), to protect city clothes.

HIKES.

Bring along a tin cup, plate, knife, fork and spoon, also some straps for hiking. Everyone is expected to take at least an overnight hike.

Bring some books.

Learn to swim before going to Camp. Then you'll be allowed outside the "Crib."

LIFE-SAVING TESTS.

Mr. A. W. Ross, of the Royal Life Saving Society, will again visit Camp to hold examinations.

PHOTOGRAPHY.

Three good prizes are offered for the best Nature Study, Landscape and Action pictures. Try for all three.

KANAWANA.

Year by year old campers have been returning to Kanawana prepared to do their full share in making Camp a success, bringing a smile, a cheerful word and a desire to get into everything, and to "Play the Game." Come in this spirit and Kanawana will be to you, too, the Camp of fond memories.

The Kanawana Smile

MUSIC(?) IN THE AIR.

Any gramaphone records that the family are tired of hearing? Try them out on the boys.

You will have many opportunities to earn your "Entertainers" Badge. Bring a fancy costume if you have one, and any musical instrument smaller than a grand piano.

KAMP KANAWANA

is not a money-making venture. The Camp fee is kept as low as it can be in order to make Camp available to as many boys as possible. Owned and operated by the Young Men's Christian Association of Montreal.

GREAT ENGINEERING FEAT

Removing the "Ritz." This building in its time has served as hospital, library, barber shop and directors' office. It will be moved to the brow of the hill between Tent A and Chute.

A DAY'S DOINGS.

7 A.M. — All up, setting-up drill, dip, tooth-brush parade, air bedding, flag raising, breakfast, chapel, Camp duties. 10 A.M.—Badge work, instructional classes, swim, dinner at 1 o'clock. Rest Hour. 2 P.M.—Short hikes, games, athletics, boating, etc. Swim, flag lowering, Supper, twilight baseball leagues, camp-fire, councils, entertainments, to the tents at 9 p.m., tent devotions 9.20, lights out, quiet 9.30.

APPLICANTS

for The Grand Order of the Chute are requested to bring their white ducks.

CAMP STORE.

Candy, stamps, cards, stationery, etc. Kanawana Baseball Hats, 50c. Candy limit per day, 10c.

Save your best story for the camp-fire.

SENIOR CABIN.

Mr. R. L. Charlton reports that he hopes to complete arrangements for a Senior Log Cabin. On rainy nights the Cabin, with a roaring fire throwing out its warmth and comfort, will be more than welcome.

COST.

The cost is $8.50 per week This includes one return trip from Montreal to Camp. All financial arrangements must be made in advance. Talk it over with the Y.M.C.A. Secretary.

CANOEING.

Be sure to get your permit signed.

Bring your paddle.

VISITORS.

The Camp Management prefers to know in advance if visitors are expected. Cost, 50c per night. For each meal, 50c. Rig to Piedmont from Camp, $1.50 each way.

AQUATICS & ATHLETICS.

Which branch will win the M. E. Williams cups?

WINNERS

Aquatics		Athletics
1917	North Br.	1917	Westmount
1918	"	1918	Central
1919	"	1919	"
1920	Central	1920	"
1921	Westmount	1921	Westmount
1922	"	1922	"

CAMP OTOREKE.

During the season a 3 day Camp Trek will be held to the Y.M.C.A. camp at Ste. Adolphe de Howard.

NOTE:—All baggage, blankets, pots & pans, etc., will be sent by express.

CAMP OPENS JUNE 23.
CLOSES SEPT. 1.

KAMP KANAWANA PICTORIAL REVIEW.

Stories around the Fire

Dining Pavilion

Senior Tent-site

A popular Spot

Next ?

Basketry Instruction

Wrestling Class

Kanawana from the Water.

During the season there will be a Central week-end, North Branch week-end, Westmount week-end, etc. Also branch stunt nights, special visitors at the Sunday services, and the Big Trek to Camp Otoreke, St. Adolphe de Howard, and other events that there isn't space to tell about. Expected long-term Leaders: Mr. Guiton and other Secretaries, Mr. Clark, Mr. W. Stone, Ged. Merrit, Mr. F. Webb, Mr. Cousins, of Grand Mere, and others.

MAKE YOUR APPLICATION EARLY. BRING YOUR CHUM TO KANAWANA THIS YEAR.